

Father's plans to impregnate Mrs. Jesus back in 1978.

She was a Korean woman [ Chung-soon Chang 張貞順 ] assigned by Reverend Moon to be the wife of Jesus back in the 1970s. He wanted to have children for Jesus through this woman but Mother and Ye Jin Nim found out about the plan and a big row broke out. Apparently, Mother threatened to leave Father if he went ahead with it.

It comes from a conversation that Dennis and Doris Orme [leaders of the Unification Church in Britain at the time] had with Mrs. Won-pok Choi. Mrs. Choi told them that Mother and Ye Jin Nim had found out about Father's plans to do Mrs. Jesus, and that this was why True Parents had been arguing so heatedly. That was 1978. I expect that Mrs. Jesus was a lot better looking then than she is now.

Graham C. Lester

天地人真の父母様と聖賢夫人

写真左から ムハンマド (マホメット) 夫人 李貞玉 (イ・ジョンオク)、

ソクラテス夫人 金明熙 (キム・ミョンヒ)、

イエス夫人 張貞順 (チャン・ジョンスン)、

孔子夫人 李京竣 (イ・ギョンジュン)、

アウグスティヌス夫人 姜賢實 (カン・ヒョンシル)

円内は釈迦夫人 崔元福 (チュウ・ウオンボク)

敬称略

Heavenly True Parents and the Sage's Wives

Photo (left to right)

Mohammed – Mrs. Jong-ok Lee 李貞玉

Socrates – Mrs. Myung-hee Kim 金明熙

Jesus – Mrs. Chung-soon Chang 張貞順

Confucius – Mrs. Kyŏng-Jun Lee 李京竣

Augustine – Mrs. Hyun-shil Kang 姜賢實

Buddha – (in the oval) Mrs. Won-bok Choi 崔元福

Titles omitted

Hyung Jin Moon explains about the women married to Jesus, Buddha, Confucius and Muhammad

Kwon Ran, a news reporter for the South Korean television broadcasting network SBS, wrote the following on her reporter's blog after attending International President Hyung Jin Nim's New Year's meeting with religion reporters on January 18, 2011 in Korea. (Translation by Tongil Foundation)

“May you receive Heaven’s Blessing in the New Year.”

This is the New Year greeting in the Unification Church. “Heaven’s Blessing” refers to the fact that “In the world under God’s dominion, His bountiful love and grace are the greatest blessings,” and the greeting expresses the wish that the person receive that love and grace. This was the greeting offered by Rev. Hyung Jin Moon in a meeting with reporters held to mark the New Year. This was my first time to attend this type of meeting with reporters after being assigned the religion beat on the culture desk. ...

I learned at this event ... that some 27,000 people in our country – including adults and children – regularly attend Unification Church services; and that the church has some 180,000 registered members worldwide. ...

Because the church serves the four saints as God’s messiahs, there are four women in the Unification Church who have married each of the saints. Their existence was revealed to the public last year during a banquet commemorating the publication of Rev. Sun Myung Moon’s autobiography. Because this was topic not easily understood by the general public, the reporters attending the recent meeting with Rev. Hyung Jin Moon asked him to explain.

The following was the explanation given by Rev. Moon, the youngest son of Rev. Sun Myung Moon, who has succeeded his father on the path as pastor to the Unification Church. ...

“In the Catholic Church, priests and nuns are said to be married to Jesus,” he said. “In this case, ‘marriage’ in the Christian tradition refers to ‘promise’ or ‘covenant.’ This is the reason these women wear rings. It means they have pledged themselves to serve these saints as they would a physical spouse. In the world of religion, there is nothing strange about this.”

“It is a marriage relationship that is spiritual, not physical,” Rev. Moon said. “The women in our church who are married to Jesus, Buddha, Confucius and Muhammad have committed to offering themselves completely for the sake of their respective spouses. They offer special devotion and serve the four saints more than others.”

The Unification Church has hundreds of couples who have been joined in “marriages with spirits.” They say that these are done so that people who have died for various reasons will not be alone in the spirit world and will be able to live eternally with their spouses. Both spouses enter into these covenants, so they cannot be broken for eternity, they say.

It is all somewhat difficult for non-believers to understand, and for this reason it has been controversial at times. In any case, religions deal with the metaphysical, and individuals are given the freedom to believe as they choose. So if another person’s belief differs from my own, I cannot say “That’s not right,” or “You’re wrong.” ...

---

Heavenly True Parents and the Sage’s Wives

Moon married the six women to religious leaders in the spirit world. With Myung-hee Kim he had fathered a child. Won-pok Choi was known as ‘Second Mother’ for many years. It is almost certain that Moon had pikareum and yongch’e ceremonies with all of these women. Yongch’e imparts a new spirit body which would enable these women to then ‘restore’ the religious leaders in the spirit world, which would make a connection between these sages and Moon. The leaders would owe their salvation from original sin, through their Moon-given wives, to Moon, and would bow down to him.

(Refer also to ‘restoration’ through the Three Day Ceremony.)

Won-pok Choi was known as ‘Second mother’ and has been listed as Moon’s fourth wife

Myung-hee Kim – How could Moon forget?

1955 Moon's third wife, Myung-hee Kim in South Korea

A jeep for Moon and nothing for Myung-hee Kim

Young-oon Kim takes care of Myung-hee Kim

#Graham C. Lester #Jesus Christ #Six wives of Moon #Won-pok Choi #Myung-hee Kim

#Young Oon Kim #Hyun-shil Kang #金明熙 #催元福 #姜賢實 #張貞順 #True Father

#shamanism in the UC #pikareum #chiwake

4 months ago 5